WHO ARE WE ?

Litemine.biz is handled and maintain by the group of serious and experienced miners around the world. The big question you might have in your mind that is it registered company? Is this legal or scam?

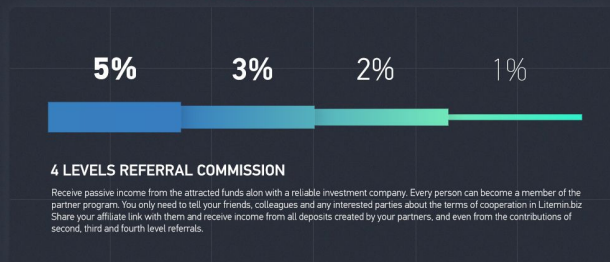

Unfortunately we cannot prove you that we are legit by exposing miner identities and our farm locations and details of it. we believe in honesty and that's why instead of using fake identities like HYIP programs, we want to remain honest here. If we wanted we can find fake KYC to create the identities and can build fake company on dark web instantly. What we can do is to list you reasons why we want to be anonymous for now.

LITEMINE CONTRACT

We are mining since a long time and from our experience we can say that mining rate is keep changing but practically that is naive so we made a software that consumes all the details and provide you the static amount every hour.
